

South West News

A Free and Independent Voice • Published Monday, Wednesday and Friday

COMMUNITY NEWSPAPERS: South Dade News, South Miami News, Kendall News, Coral Gables News, South West News, Homestead/Florida City News, North Miami News, North Bay Village News, North Miami News, Miami Shores News, Coral City/Opa-Locka News, Hialeah/ Miami Springs News, County-wide Community Newspaper

Monday, February 17, 1986

(Left to Right) David Flynn, Kathleen Brant, Tom Ryan, Polly Stone and Tom Ehas in a scene from the 1986 South Florida Theatre Company's production of "The Comedy of Errors" opening February 19th and playing in repertory with "As You Like It," "Julio Cesar" (a World Premier adaptation of Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar) and Moliere's "The Doctor In Spite Of Himself" (A Musical). The fourth Florida Shakespeare Festival at Vizcaya, February 13th through April 6th. Photo by Deborah Gray Mitchell.

BEST BET

Shakespeare Festival

Opens at 8 p.m. today (2/13)
 Vizcaya Gardens
 3251 S. Miami Ave.
 Tickets $8 — $14.50, subscription
 $27.20 — $49.30
 For tickets: 854-1983 or 447-1516

The South Florida Theatre Company opens its season with "As You Like It," where everyone finds romance, fun and intrigue in Arden's Forest. "The Comedy of Errors" plays at 7 p.m. Wednesday (2/19) while you enjoy your picnic dinner. For the Wednesday show bring a blanket and something soft to sit on.

Marilyn Downey and Michael Maudlin in "As You Like It"

SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL The South Florida Theatre Company presents "As You Like It." 8 p.m. today (2/13), Friday, Saturday and 2 p.m. Saturday, Vizcaya Gardens, 3251 S. Miami Ave. "Comedy of Errors," 7 p.m. Wednesday (2/19), is "Picnic in the Bard," bring a picnic supper and something soft to sit on, now lawn chairs please. Single tickets: $8 — $14.50, subscription $27.50 — $49.30. For tickets: 854-1983 or 447-1516.